PAGEANT HISTORY

The Miss Old Gold and Black Collegiate Pageant, under the sponsorship of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., is an outgrowth of the long tradition of Alpha Chapters inauguration of outstanding young ladies to serve as "Chapter Sweethearts." The Fraternity recognizes the valuable support rendered to it by the many friends of Alpha Phi Alpha - and this endeavor serves as one mechanism to applaud such support.

For some time, several of the Fraternity's five geographical regions have sponsored Miss Old Gold and Black Pageants as a part of their conventions. Since the early 1970's, there has been increasing support of these pageants on a national scale.

The first national Miss Old Gold and Black Pageant was held during Alpha's 1976 General Convention in New York City. Miss Denise Smith, representing Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia, was awarded the first crown.

The Pageant was deferred following the first event and reinstated during the Fraternity's 1982 General Convention in Los Angeles, California.

For this pageant, the Junior Miss Old Gold and Black, graduate chapters have extended the Fraternity's scholarship pageantry tradition at the high school level. Junior and Senior grade level young ladies compete to wear the crown, represent Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. in the community, and prepare for life after high school.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND INFORMATION FOR JUDGES

We are proud to welcome you among the distinguished persons who have offered their generous services to the Junior Miss Old Gold and Black Pageant.

In order that you might make the most unbiased and impartial decision, we have included some guidelines that should be beneficial in your judgment of the contestants. We are confident that you will help to ensure the ultimate degree of excellence is achieved in the judging of the Pageant.

COMMUNICATION WITH OTHER JUDGES

During competition and scoring, it is recommended that judges refrain from talking to, or otherwise communicating with other judges on the panel. There should be no discussing of the contestants with anyone prior to the final selection of the winner.

SECRECY DURING COMPETITIONS AND IN BETWEEN SEGMENTS OF THE PAGEANT

Judges should not discuss or reveal how they have judged or scored any contestant in the competition.

REACTION TO AUDIENCE

Judges should maintain an objective attitude toward the audience's reaction to the contestant's performance. Many contestants bring a contingent of support with them to a pageant and it is hoped that this reaction will not influence a judge's decision.

EMOTIONAL REACTION TO CONTESTANT'S PERFORMANCE

It is required that judges refrain from using meaningful or physical expression in reacting to a contestant's performance. Judges should not applaud louder for one contestant than for another. Judges should refrain from any emotional response to a contestant so as not to influence the decision of other judges.

FAMILIARITY WITH CONTESTANT

A judge shall not be a friend, acquaintance, relative, associate, or in any way be familiar with any contestant or member of any contestant's family. In the event the aforementioned should happen to be true, it is expressly required that said judge disqualify himself/herself from the panel of judges.
